SPAIN STOPPING IMMIGRATION TO THIS TERRITORY

Manager of an Agency Who Booked 300 Spaniards Arrested by Government

Emigration to Hawaii has been officially prohibited by the Spanish government, according to reports that have reached Hawaii and are confirmed by cabled information from Spanish ports.

The Spanish government, it is reported, in August issued an emphatic warning to emigrants ordering them not to go to Hawaii, and followed this up with drastic measures to prevent any emigrants leaving Spain for this territory. On August 29 an emigration agency operating in Cadiz was raided by government officials and a seizure made of the papers found there.

When it was learned that these papers showed that 300 Spaniards had been booked for passage to Hawaii in immigrant ships, the manager of the agency was arrested and threatened with severe punishment.

News of this affair has reached Hawaii by way of Washington. The territorial board of immigration has temporarily stopped the recruiting of immigrant labor in Europe, and from the reports of Spain's attitude, it is believed that no more Spanish labor can be secured, for a long time at least.

No reason for Spain's action is given. The resident Spanish consul, Señor Ignacio de Arana, has made a number of complaints in the past regarding the treatment of Spanish laborers here, but the complaints, so far as can be learned, have dealt only with minor details and he has not announced himself in opposition to further immigration of his countrymen.

GOVERNOR IS DETERMINED TO LEAVE OFFICE

Trio to Washington Said to Be Primarily to Insist on Being Relieved

DECLINES TO SANCTION
REAPPOINTMENT MOVE

Chief Executive Anxious to Return to Private Life and Resume Legal Practice

Governor Frear is going to Washington primarily to insist on his immediate retirement from office and under no conditions that he can now foresee would he accept reappointment, according to close friends of the executive and according to men who have talked recently with the governor about the unique situation in which he finds himself.

That the governor's wish for a leave of absence at this time is due to his intention to make his own attitude personally known to the president and to Secretary Lane is the statement of some of the men who have stood closest to Frear during his administration. It is known that more than once in the last few months he has definitely and emphatically declined to sanction any move toward a reappointment, that he has stuck to an intention to quit on September 1, and that when September 1 arrived and his successor did not arrive, Frear decided it was about time for him to make an active step toward hastening the appointment of that successor.

Last spring the governor made it known to the secretary of the interior that he wished to quit, either not later than September 1. He hoped to be able to complete his report and wind up some of the current affairs of his administration that he regarded as particularly important. This he has done and having done it, he is said to feel that he should take a much-needed vacation and then resume his professional practice.

Recent developments in the controversy over the appointment of L. E. Pinkham as governor are believed to be responsible for the trip to Washington. It appears that Pinkham is not to be confirmed right away. The governor sees no immediate prospect of handing over his gubernatorial toga and scepter—as well as his fast moving revolving chair—to a successor, and he intends to convey the news gently but firmly, it is said, that he really cannot consent to hold down the job indefinitely.

Discussion of Frear's trip among those who have talked with him lately also deals with the Rapid Transit franchise. The franchise bill, after passing the territorial legislature, went up to congress for necessary passage there. Nothing has been done with it during the extra session, but Delegate Kaine cabled a few days ago that he would introduce it soon. It is known that Governor Frear is exceedingly anxious that this bill be passed. He fought the Rapid Transit company during the last legislature until a bill was passed to whose terms he assented, and he thinks that the franchise should pass congress in virtually the same form. Whether he can hasten its passage any during his stay in Washington is yet to be seen. The bill is not expected to pass during the special session, but will be up for action early in the next regular session.

It is possible also that Frear in his private capacity as an attorney, will represent the Hawaiian Dredging company in Washington in the adjustment of the dredge damage matter. Walter F. Dillingham, president

EVIDENCE TENDS TO SHOW YOUNG M'CANDLESS OF UNSOUND MIND

Witnesses Believe That Youth Should Be in Asylum—Not in County Jail

Six witnesses were examined before Circuit Judge Robinson yesterday afternoon in the investigation of the mentality of George McCandless, the youth recently sentenced to four years imprisonment for passing worthless checks. Most of the witnesses expressed the opinion that the youth should not be an object of penal punishment, but rather the subject of medical care and the strict discipline of an asylum.

Two important witnesses, Circuit Judge Whitney, who sent the boy to the reformatory two years ago, and Dr. J. R. Judd, who examined McCandless at that time, could not be present yesterday. For that reason the hearing was continued to 2 o'clock next Friday afternoon.

Mrs. William McCandless, the mother, related a number of incidents of the last five years indicating to her that the boy was of unsound mind. She said that five years ago, at the age of thirteen, George had been thrown from a horse, receiving an injury on the head from which he was unconscious several hours. His peculiar idiosyncrasies dated from that time, she declared. He then proceeded to perform many tricks which normal boys his age would disdain. For instance, she said, he nailed up a board on the henroost in the chicken house and frequently the family would find him sleeping with the chickens at night; this despite the fact that a good bed awaited him in the house and the doors were not locked against him.

At other times the family discovered him sleeping under the house, or on the roof. Often he ran away from school, went home and hid out for hours in the trees or under the buildings, said his mother.

Rev. D. C. Peters, pastor of the Christian church, said George went to his home a few weeks ago, and asked him for two dollars. In response to the minister's query, the youth said his bicycle was broken, and he wanted to have it repaired. Canilly refusing to contribute until he had more definite knowledge, the clergyman followed the boy down to the gate and personally examined the ma-

POLICE REGULATIONS DECAPITATE INCOMES

M'DUFFIE WILL LOSE HEAVILY BY NEW RULE

Civil Service Commission Has Outlined Plan for Using
'Easy Money'

Whether Chief of Detectives McDuffie leaves tomorrow for his trip to China with a light or a heavy heart depends on the outcome of a meeting of the police and the civil service commission, which will be held this evening in the chambers of the supervisors. Concomitant with his departure he will know if hereafter he will be permitted to claim as his own the rewards he secured by reason of his position. For now, while the detective is packing his carpetbag before starting forth on the jaunt to China as the traveling companion of Carlos Roberto Sanchez, being returned to Shanghai on a charge of embezzlement, Chairman Ambrose J. Wirtz of the commission has written a provision in the proposed rules and regulations of the police department, which, if passed at the meeting of the commission this evening, will separate McDuffie from the rewards, liberal and otherwise.

Of course, the provision applies to all officers of the force, but as McDuffie, being the chief of detectives, has been the one who has received most of the "fruits from the catches," the provision hits him hard, while it is a benefit to the other members of the police force. All money, says the provision, received as an extra compensation, from individuals, companies or corporations, is to be put in a fund and disposed of as the department sees fit, subject to the approval of the commission. A similar regulation has been incorporated in the rules of the fire department.

SALARIES THREATEN TO EXHAUST FUNDS OF THE PUBLIC UTILITIES

Income Estimated at $10,000 a Year by Chairman Mott-Smith; While Stipends Aggregate $8400, Leaving Sum of $1600 for Rent, Traveling Expenses, Etc.

The public utilities commission faces the prospect of a much smaller income than originally anticipated—so small in fact that its activity will be sharply restricted with probably only about $1,600 for all expenses for the year, exclusive of the salaries of its members.

Such is the estimate made today by Chairman E. A. Mott-Smith, based on the returns to date from the various public utility corporations of the territory, in response to the queries sent out a week ago.

"The figures so far submitted by the public utilities corporations, showing the amount they will be expected to contribute in fees for the maintenance of the commission are considerably less than was estimated at the time the new law was enacted, or when the commission organized for business on July 1," said Chairman Mott-Smith. "In fact it now looks as though our fees will amount to only about sixty or seventy-five percent of the original estimate."

"In round figures, it appears that we will have only about $10,000 a year income. Of this $8,400 goes to pay the salaries of the commissioners themselves, leaving $1,600 for all other expenses, such as the holding of hearings, the traveling expense and payment of witnesses, traveling expense of the members, office rent and salaries of office employees."

"We had figured that our annual expense would be about $14,000, or $7,000 semi-annually. Now it looks like our semi-annual income will amount to not more than $5,000."

"No, I don't know that there is anything we can do except to plug along as best we can for the next eighteen months, until the legislature meets again. The law is there, and we must do our best to live up to it."

THAW, SEIZED IN CELL, IS HURRIED OVER BORDER INTO U. S. AND ARRESTED THERE

Canadian Immigration Authorities Act
Quickly on Orders of High Officials—
mont, Dazed And Lost—
Finally Caught

COATICOOK, Quebec, Sept. 10.—Harry Kendall Thaw's sensational flight from freedom is probably ended in a defeat just as sensational as his escape from Mattawan Hospital for the Criminal Insane a few days ago. Thaw was deported to the United States today by the Canadian immigration officials. Their plans were not known in advance and their sudden action took Thaw's counsel completely by surprise.

At an early hour this morning, several officials of the immigration service entered the jail cell where Thaw was confined awaiting the result of his appeal to a Montreal court.

Thaw was seized. Though bewildered by the order to accompany the officials, he made a physical fight against being taken from the cell but was overpowered and taken to an automobile waiting near the jail. Two Canadian officials there took him in charge.

All the way to the auto Thaw fought and cried out that he was being kidnapped. Despite the early hour a crowd began to collect and sympathy for Thaw was shown. Once in the machine and under way, Thaw, seated between two officers, partially collapsed and made no determined effort to escape, evidently realizing the hopelessness of his plight.

When the Vermont border was crossed, Thaw was at once released. No American authorities were present and Thaw might have stolen back into Canada had he seized his opportunity, but instead he wandered about, appearing to be dazed, and obviously not knowing where to go or what to do.

Newspapermen, hearing rumors of the action of the officials, meanwhile had hurried on the trail of the car that carried Thaw and one car containing reporters met Thaw as he was wandering about. He entered the car and was driven about for three hours.

Finally, found by American officials, he was arrested near the little town of Colebrook, New Hampshire. He made no resistance.

Thaw's Lawyers Admit Probable Defeat

COATICOOK, Quebec, Sept. 10.—The several attorneys who have been representing Harry Thaw were thunderstruck when they learned this morning that he had been taken from his cell and deported. They say that, in view of the pending appeal in Montreal, somebody is probably in contempt of court for removing Thaw from the dominion, but admit that as he has been returned to the United States, they have very likely lost their fight. "What good will the fact that contempt of court has been shown do us now?" they ask.

Thaw's Mother Collapses—Nurse Watching

MONTREAL, Canada, Sept. 10.—Mrs. Mary Copley Thaw, mother of Harry K. Thaw, who is here awaiting the result of the appeal on her son's behalf, collapsed this morning when she heard the news of Thaw's deportation. She is under the care of a trained nurse, who is watching her to prevent her doing any injury to herself.

New York State Wants to Get Thaw Now

ALBANY, New York, Sept. 10.—Acting Governor Martin H. Glynn today telegraphed a request to the New Hampshire authorities, who arrested Thaw today, to hold him awaiting action by the state of New York. New York is expected to take immediate steps to secure possession of the slayer of Stanford White.

Canadian Official Ordered Deportation

OTTAWA, Canada, Sept. 10.—The mystery of Thaw's sudden deportation was partially explained today when C. J. Doherty, acting minister of the interior, said that last night he rejected the appeal on behalf of Thaw against the previous decision for deportation made by the immigration authorities. Minister Doherty says that after rejecting the Thaw appeal he ordered the deportation forthwith.

Japanese War Vessels Said To Have Landed Forces At Nanking

LONDON, Eng., Sept. 10.—According to a dispatch from Shanghai, three Japanese cruisers and a Japanese gunboat have landed an armed force at Nanking to compel restitution for Japanese subjects killed during the taking of the city from the rebels.

Pugilist Says He's Disgusted

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 10.—Willie Ritchie, champion lightweight pugilist of the world, left this city today for San Francisco, his match with Freddy Welsh, English, scheduled for September 20 at Vancouver, having been called off because of a financial disagreement between the fighters and the promoters. Ritchie's version of the split is that the promoters yesterday refused to accept responsibility for the purse that they had previously guaranteed. It was reported that Ritchie was to get $10,000, win, lose or draw. The champion says that he is disgusted with the Vancouver management.

Japanese Assassin Suicides

TOKIO, Japan, Sept. 10.—One of the assassins of Moritaro Abe, the head of the political bureau of foreign affairs who was murdered, possibly because he was mistaken for Dr. Sun Yat Sen, committed suicide in his cell last night by stabbing himself in the throat.

The assassin left an exciting confession in which he stated that he had acted in a delirium of rage caused by the killing of the Japanese by the Chinese in Nanking.

Sentencing Set For Monday

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 10.—The sentencing of Maury I. Diggs and F. Drew Caminetti, convicted of white slavery, has been postponed until next Monday because of the perjury charge on which Diggs went to trial today.

Zeppelin's Derigible Wrecked
